1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 1.1. The “Rural Mutual Assistance Bank of Armenia” Cooperative Bank was established pursuant to the resolution, adopted at the General Meeting on August 28, 1995, and the execution of the Founding Agreement, dated December 1, 1995. By the resolution of the General Meeting dated September 9, 2006, the Cooperative Bank underwent reorganization and was renamed as “ACBA-CREDIT AGRICOLE BANK” Closed Joint-Stock Company. Subsequently, pursuant to a resolution of the General Meeting dated May 26, 2020, “ACBA-CREDIT AGRICOLE BANK” CJSC was further reorganized and renamed as “ACBA BANK” Open Joint-Stock Company (hereinafter referred to as the “Bank”).
“ACBA BANK” Open Joint-Stock Company is a universal bank.
- 1.2. “ACBA BANK” is an open joint-stock commercial and for-profit organization.
- 1.3. The main objective of the Bank’s activities is to contribute to the development and strengthening of the economy, small and medium business, and agriculture.
- 1.4. The founding document of the Bank is this Charter (hereinafter also referred to as the “Charter”) that is binding for the Bank’s shareholders (participants), governing and management bodies. The Bank shall be guided by the legislation of the Republic of Armenia, this Charter, and internal legal acts.
- 1.5. In the conduct of its activities, the Bank shall operate independently from the State. The Bank’s share capital shall be divided among its shareholders in the form of a specified number of shares, which confer upon the shareholders the right to receive distributions.
The Bank shall acquire a legal entity status upon its registration with the Central Bank of the Republic of Armenia (hereinafter referred to as “the Central Bank”).
- 1.6. The Bank may become a member of unions, established for the purpose of coordinating banks’ activities, protecting their interests, exchanging information, providing training for personnel and contributing to banking policy development.
- 1.7. The Bank shall possess separate property and shall be liable for its obligations to the extent of such property. It may acquire and exercise both property and personal non-property rights, assume obligations in its own name, and act as a claimant or respondent in judicial proceedings.
- 1.8. The Bank shall carry out all banking operations on its own behalf, within the scope of its banking license and in accordance with the legislation of the Republic of Armenia.
- 1.9. The legal address of the Bank is: 82-84 Aram Street, No. 89, 99, 100, Yerevan, Republic of Armenia.
- 1.10. The Bank shall possess a round seal, bearing its trademark and name in both Armenian and English. The Bank shall hold trademarks, stamps and blanks.
- 1.11. The full name of the Bank shall read:
In Armenian: «ԱԿԲԱ- ԲԱՆԿ» բաց բաժնետիրական ընկերություն
In English: “ACBA BANK” OPEN JOINT STOCK COMPANY
The abbreviated name of the Bank shall read:
In Armenian: «ԱԿԲԱ ԲԱՆԿ»
In English: “ACBA BANK”
- 1.12. The Bank may have branches and representative offices in the territory of the Republic of Armenia. The branches and representative offices of the Bank shall operate in accordance with the Charter of the Bank, its internal regulatory acts and the respective charters of branches and representative offices. The branches and representative offices of the Bank shall not constitute separate legal entities.
- 1.13. Branches and representative offices shall be established in accordance with the procedure prescribed by law. Termination of branches’ and representative offices’ activities shall be carried out in accordance with the procedure prescribed by law.

- 1.14. The Bank shall bear responsibility for its own obligations, as well as those incurred by its branches and representative offices. The Bank shall not be liable for the obligations of the State, nor shall the State be liable for the obligations of the Bank, except in cases where either party has assumed such obligations. The Bank shall not be liable for the obligations of its shareholders. The shareholders shall not be liable for the obligations of the Bank and shall bear the risk of losses arising from the Bank’s activities solely to the extent of the nominal value of the shares they hold.
- 1.15. For the purposes of this Charter, the concept of “Bank Group” shall include “ACBA Bank” OJSC, “ACBA Leasing” Credit Organization CJSC, as well as other subsidiaries, if applicable.
- 1.16. In the event of any inconsistency or conflict between the provisions of this Charter and normative legal acts, the regulations provided for by the normative legal acts shall prevail.

2. SHARE CAPITAL AND RESERVE FUND OF THE BANK

- 2.1. The Bank has a share capital that is equal to the aggregate nominal value of all outstanding shares.
- 2.2. The share capital of the Bank amounts 89,775,000,000 (eighty-nine billion seven hundred seventy-five million) AMD. The share capital of the Bank is divided into 5,985,000 (five million nine hundred eighty-five thousand) ordinary (common) shares with a nominal value of 15,000 (fifteen thousand) AMD for each.
- 2.3. The number of the Bank’s authorized ordinary shares available for further placement is 2,500,000 (two million five hundred thousand). These constitute the shares to be allocated by the Bank in addition to its currently outstanding shares.
- 2.4. No maximum limit shall be established on the number of voting shares of the Bank to be held by a single shareholder within the share capital of the Bank.
- 2.5. The Bank’s shareholders’ register shall be maintained by the Central Depository.
- 2.6. The Bank shall have the right to increase its share capital either by increasing the nominal value of existing shares or by issuing additional shares, provided that all previously issued shares have been fully paid. The Bank may not increase the nominal value of its shares beyond the amount of net assets as determined by the most recent balance sheet, as approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders, and the most recent audit report.
- 2.7. Any reduction of the Bank’s actually paid share capital during its operation – whether through the distribution of dividends at the expense of such capital or by any other means – shall be prohibited, except in cases, stipulated by the Law of the Republic of Armenia “On Banks and Banking Activity”.
- 2.8. In cases prescribed by law, the Bank may repurchase its own shares. Any decision regarding a reduction of share capital or the further resale of repurchased shares shall be adopted by the General Meeting of Shareholders by at least three-fourths (3/4) of the votes of shareholders participating in the meeting, provided that no less than two-thirds (2/3) of the voting shareholders are represented. The repurchase of shares shall be subject to the prior consent of the Board of the Central Bank of the Republic of Armenia. The Bank is obligated to resell the repurchased shares within a period not exceeding two months from the date it acquires ownership of such shares.
- 2.9. The total equity of the Bank shall consist of the sum of primary and supplementary components, including share capital, general reserve, retained earnings, and other reserves and sources not restricted by law.
- 2.10. The Bank has established a reserve fund (general reserve) in an amount equal to fifteen percent (15%) of its share capital. In the event that the reserve fund falls below this threshold, allocations shall be made to the fund in an amount of not less than five percent

(5%) of the Bank’s profit, as well as from the difference between the issue price and the nominal value of newly issued shares. The reserve fund shall be used exclusively for purposes prescribed by law.

- 2.11. The share premium (capital surplus) may be utilized solely in connection with a reduction of the Bank’s share capital in accordance with Article 36 of the Law of the Republic of Armenia “On Banks and Banking Activity”, or for the purpose of covering losses in the event of the Bank’s insolvency, or may be applied to increase the nominal value of the Bank’s shares.

3. THE SHARES OF THE BANK

- 3.1. The Bank may issue both ordinary (common) and one or more classes of preferred shares. The issuance of shares may be conducted through public (open) or private (closed) subscription, as determined by resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders. All shares of the Bank shall be issued in non-certificated (dematerialized) form. In the case of a public offering, the share issuance prospectus shall be approved by the Board of the Bank and shall be subject to authorization by the Central Bank of the Republic of Armenia. The total nominal value of the preferred shares issued by the Bank shall not exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of the Bank’s share capital.
- 3.2. A share of the Bank shall be indivisible.
- 3.3. The Bank shall be prohibited from discounting, purchasing, or otherwise acquiring its own shares, as well as from granting loans secured by its own shares as collateral, except in cases provided for by law.
- 3.4. The shareholders of the Bank shall have the right to dispose of their shares without requiring the consent of other shareholders.

4. THE RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE BANK’S SHAREHOLDERS

- 4.1. Each share of the Bank shall confer equal rights upon its holder. Each shareholder shall enjoy the following rights to:
- 1) Participate in the General Meeting of Shareholders with a voting right on all the matters within its mandate, in proportion to the number of voting shares they hold;
 - 2) Take part in the governance of the Bank;
 - 3) Receive dividends from the profit, due to the activity of the Bank;
 - 4) Exercise a preemptive right to acquire shares newly issued by the Bank, unless otherwise provided by the legislation of the Republic of Armenia;
 - 5) Receive the information on the activities of the Bank, as defined by law, including access to the balance sheet and reports (such information shall be provided to the Bank’s shareholders free of charge upon their written request within three business days);
 - 6) Bank’s shareholders, holding at least 5% of voting shares in the share capital of the Bank, shall have the right to demand an external audit of the Bank’s financial and economical activities. In such case the shareholders requesting the audit shall select the external auditor, execute the audit agreement, and pay for the services. Furthermore, they may request reimbursement of the audit costs if the General Meeting of Shareholders determines that the audit was justified in the Bank’s interest;
 - 7) Authorize a third party to represent them at the General Meeting of Shareholders;

- 8) To submit proposals and recommendation for consideration at the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - 9) Vote in proportion to the number of fully paid shares they own;
 - 10) File a claim in court, challenging the decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders that are in contradiction with adopted and effective laws and other legal acts;
 - 11) Receive their proportional due share of Bank's assets upon liquidation; and
 - 12) Exercise other rights as provided by law and this Charter.
- 4.2. The Bank's shareholders shall bear the following obligations:
- 1) To ensure contributions in the amount of the subscribed share capital in the share capital of the Bank within the specified period;
 - 2) Not to disclose any confidential information concerning the Bank's activities;
 - 3) To perform other duties as provided by law.

5. THE OPERATIONS OF THE BANK

- 5.1. In accordance with the procedures established by the laws and other legal acts of the Republic of Armenia, the Bank may carry out the following operations:

 - 11) Safekeep precious metals and gemstones, jewelry, securities, documents, and other valuables;
 - 12) Provide financial and investment advisory services;
 - 13) Create and maintain information systems for customers' creditworthiness and carry out debt collection activities;
 - 14) Perform other operations, not prohibited by law.
- 5.2. The Bank may also engage in activities or operations provided by law as well as those permitted by the Central Bank, even if not defined by law. The outsourcing of any operations by the Bank shall be carried out with the procedure established by the legislation.
- 5.3. The Bank may enter into any civil-law transaction, necessary and appropriate for the performance of its activities, to the extent such activities are permitted by the legislation of the Republic of Armenia and this Charter.
- 5.4. The Bank shall conduct its financial operations in Armenian drams (AMD) and foreign currency, except in cases otherwise provided by law.
- 5.5. The Bank cannot perform manufacturing, trade and insurance activities unless otherwise specified by law.

6. THE GOVERNANCE OF THE BANK

- 6.1. The governing bodies of the Bank shall consist of the following:
- 1) The General Meeting of Shareholders (hereinafter referred to as the “General Meeting”);
 - 2) The Board of the Bank (hereinafter referred to as the “Board”);
 - 3) The Executive Body of the Bank, represented by the Chief Executive Officer of the Bank (hereinafter referred to as the “Chief Executive Officer”).
- 6.2. The General Meeting shall be the supreme governing body of the Bank.
- 6.3. The Board of the Bank shall carry out the general management of the Bank’s activities within the scope of authority, prescribed for the Board by law. In cases and in accordance with the procedure established by the legislation of the Republic of Armenia and this Charter, the General Meeting shall have the right to delegate the decision-making powers on certain issues to the Board.
- 6.4. The day-to-day operations of the Bank shall be managed by the Chief Executive Officer. Any matters not expressly falling within the exclusive competence of the General Meeting, the Board, or the Internal Audit Unit (hereinafter referred to as the “Internal Audit”) shall fall within the authority of the Chief Executive Officer.
The authority to make decisions on matters within the competence of the Chief Executive Officer may not be delegated to any other management body of the Bank, the Internal Audit, the Chief Accountant, or any other person, except where such authority is duly delegated to a designated person, temporarily substituting for the Chief Executive Officer.
- 6.5. The Chief Executive Officer shall act as the representative of the Bank at the General Meetings of the Bank’s subsidiaries. Any decision to be made on behalf of the Bank at such meetings shall be subject to the prior approval of the Board.
- 6.6. The Bank shall have the following key functions and officers in place: a Chief Accountant; Internal Audit; a Risk Management officer; and a Compliance officer.

7. THE GENERAL MEETING OF THE BANK’S SHAREHOLDERS

The Powers of the General Meeting

- 7.1. The General Meeting shall have powers for the following:
- 1) Approval of the Bank’s Charter (including change of legal form, change or extension of term, transfer of the registered office), as well as amendments and supplements thereto and the approval of the revised versions of the Charter;
 - 2) Reorganization of the Bank (merger, demerger, restructuring), change of the tax residency or corporate form, unless otherwise provided by law;
 - 3) Liquidation of the Bank, voluntary dissolution and/or liquidation, partial contribution of assets, business-leasing or transfer of a going concern;
 - 4) Approval of procedure for the conduct of the General Meeting;
 - 5) Approval of internal documents regulating the activities of the General Meeting and the Board of the Bank (including the rules of procedure of the General Meeting and the Board);
 - 6) Approval of summary, interim and liquidation balances, and appointment of liquidation committee;
 - 7) Approval of the numerical composition of the Board, any decision regarding reducing or increasing the number of Board members, election of Board members, the establishment of their term and early termination of their powers in cases provided by law. The approval of the numerical composition of the Board and the election of its members shall be considered exclusively at annual General Meetings, except in cases provided by law, where the numerical composition of the Board may be approved at an extraordinary General Meeting. The election of Board members may be considered at an extraordinary General Meeting, in the event that the latter has made a decision on the early termination of the powers of the Board or its individual members;

- 8) Determination of the remuneration for Board members;
- 9) Determination of the maximum volume of authorized shares;
- 10) Appointment and removal of statutory auditors of the Bank;
- 11) Reduction of the Bank’s share capital through a decrease in the nominal value of shares, as well as the purchase, repurchase and redemption of its outstanding shares to reduce the total number thereof;

- 32) Establishment of a counting committee;
- 33) Any other matters in the scope of the approved agenda falling within the exclusive competence of the General Meeting, as defined by law.

Procedure for the Adoption of Decisions by the General Meeting

- 7.2. The authority to adopt decisions on the matters set forth in Article 7.1 of this Charter shall be vested exclusively in the General Meeting and may not be delegated to any other management body of the Bank. The General Meeting shall not consider or decide on matters that do not fall within its competence.
- 7.3. Decisions on the matters specified in sub-clauses 1, 2, 3, 6, 9, 11, 17, 22, 24, and 27 of Article 7.1 of this Charter shall require the vote of three-fourths (3/4) of voting share owners, attending the General Meeting. For the matters specified in sub-clauses 3, 11, 27, and 33 of the same Article, decisions shall be adopted with a three-fourths (3/4) vote of the voting shareholders, attending the General Meeting, but not less than two-thirds (2/3) of voting share owners. The decision on the matter specified in sub-clause 20 of Article 7.1 shall be adopted by a majority vote of the shareholders participating in the General Meeting who hold voting shares and do not have an interest in the transaction. General Meeting decisions on all other matters shall be adopted by a simple majority of participants’ votes, unless a higher voting threshold is mandated by law.

Participation in the General Meeting

- 7.4. The following persons shall have the right to participate in the General Meeting:
- a) Shareholders owning ordinary (common) and preferred shares of the Bank, in proportion to the number of votes attached to their shares, as well as nominee holders of those shares, as provided for by law;
 - b) Members of the Board and Executive Body of the Bank (Chief Executive Officer, Deputy Chief Executive Officers, and the Chief Accountant) who are not shareholders of the Bank, enjoying an advisory voting right;
 - c) Members of the Internal Audit of the Bank in the capacity of observers;
 - d) The Bank's external auditor in the capacity of an observer (provided that the audit opinion is included in the agenda of the General Meeting);
 - e) The representatives of the Central Bank, participating as observers;
 - f) Persons invited by the Bank, when deemed necessary.
- 7.5. The list of shareholders of the Bank entitled to participate in the General Meeting shall be compiled based on the data from the Bank's shareholder register as of the year, month, and date determined by the Board.
- The record date (year, month, day) for compiling the list of shareholders eligible to participate in the General Meeting shall not precede the date on which the decision to convene the General Meeting is adopted; nor shall it be more than 45 (forty-five) calendar days prior to the scheduled date of the General Meeting.
- In the event the General Meeting is convened by means of in absentia voting, the record date for participation shall be set at least 35 (thirty-five) calendar days prior to the date of convening the General Meeting.
- The Bank shall notify the Central Bank of the Republic of Armenia of convening the General Meeting no later than 15 (fifteen) days before the scheduled date of the meeting.
- For the purpose of compiling the list of Bank's shareholders entitled to participate in the General Meeting, nominee holder shall provide, by year, month, and day, information regarding the persons on whose behalf he/she holds the shares.
- The list of eligible participants to attend the General Meeting shall include the name (legal name), registered address (or place of residence), and Bank's equity participation details of each participant, broken down by the class and type of shares held.
- The list of the Bank's participants eligible to attend the General Meeting shall be made available for review to those participants who are on the Bank's register of participants.
- Upon a Bank participant's request, the Bank shall issue a certificate to a shareholder confirming their inclusion in the list of shareholders eligible to participate in the General Meeting.
- Amendments to the list of Bank participants, eligible to attend the General Meeting, may only be made in order to correct the errors made during its compilation or restore the violated rights and legitimate interests of Bank's shareholders, excluded from the list.
- 7.6. The General Meeting shall be convened at least once per year. The General Meeting shall be deemed duly constituted if, at the close of the registration of participants, shareholders holding in aggregate more than 50% of the Bank's outstanding voting shares are registered as present.
- 7.7. Shareholders shall be invited to the General Meeting individually. The agenda of the General Meeting shall be approved by the Board.
- 7.8. Shareholders must be notified of the convening of the General Meeting no later than 21 (twenty-one) days prior to the scheduled date of the meeting. The notice shall include at a minimum the information required by law. Upon the decision of the Board, the notice on convening the General Meeting and the voting ballots may be delivered by registered mail or personal delivery or electronic communication channels, including e-mail, software and application platforms (including mobile applications). The announcement on convening the General Meeting shall also be published on the Bank's webpage and in the press.

- 7.9. In preparation for the General Meeting, the Board shall decide on the following:
- 1) The time, venue and format of convening the General Meeting;
 - 2) The agenda of the General Meeting;
 - 3) The record date for participation in the General Meeting;
 - 4) The methods and procedure of shareholder notification;
 - 5) The list of information to be made available to shareholders;
 - 6) The format and content of voting ballots, as well as the procedure and deadlines for the submission thereof, in the event that voting is conducted by ballots.
- 7.10. The General Meeting may be convened through in absentia voting (polling), including through the use of voting ballots. In the event that the General Meeting is held in absentia, the agenda shall be delivered to shareholders eligible to participate in the General Meeting at least 30 (thirty) days in advance, by personal delivery or via electronic communication channels, including email, software or application platforms (including mobile applications), and their feedback shall be received on each item of the agenda. In the event of in absentia voting, voting ballots must be provided to shareholders no later than 30 (thirty) days before the deadline for submission of completed ballots. In cases where voting occurs via electronic, teletyping or telephone communication means, the ballots (including electronic ballots) shall be distributed to shareholders at least 7 (seven) days prior to the meeting.
- 7.11. The General Meeting may adopt decisions in a format that enables real-time communication among shareholders via telephone, videoconferencing, or other communication means, including email, software or application platforms (including mobile applications). Such a General Meeting session shall not be deemed an in absentia voting (poll) meeting. In sessions of the General Meeting held in this format, decisions may be adopted only on matters, not prohibited by law.
- In the event that the General Meeting is conducted via other communication channels, including email, software and application platforms (including mobile applications), the Board may decide that voting shall last beyond one day. In such cases, the voting results shall be summarized within 5 (five) business days following the close of the planned voting period. Furthermore, in the event that the same participants submits multiple ballots, only the latest submission and/or position shall be considered.
- 7.12. A Counting committee shall be established by the Bank. Its numerical composition and members, as well as their terms in office shall be determined by the decision of the General Meeting, upon the recommendation of the Board. The Committee shall consist of no fewer than three members. The following persons may not serve as members of the Counting Committee: the members of the Board, the members of the Internal Audit, the Chief Executive Officer and Deputy Chief Executive Officers or interim officers and the candidates for the above-mentioned positions. The Counting Committee's functions may be delegated to a Bank's specialized registrar. The Counting Committee shall confirm the quorum of the meeting, provide procedural clarifications to shareholders and their representatives on voting on meeting agenda items, ensure the proper conduct of voting and safeguard shareholders' voting rights, count the votes, summarize the results, draft the minutes, and archive the ballots.
- 7.13. Minutes of each General Meeting shall be prepared. The Minutes shall be finalized within five (5) business days of the General Meeting conclusion, in at least two copies. The minutes shall be signed by the Chairperson and the Secretary of the Meeting. The Chairperson shall be responsible for the accuracy of the information recorded in the minutes of the General Meeting.
- The minutes shall include the following:
1. The year, month, date, time, and venue of the General Meeting;
 2. The total number of votes attributable to outstanding voting shares of the Bank;

3. The total number of votes held by shareholders attending the General Meeting;
4. The names of the Chairperson and Secretary, as well as the agenda of the General Meeting.

The minutes shall contain the key points of the speeches, delivered during the General Meeting, the items put to the vote, the voting results thereof, and the resolutions adopted. The Bank shareholders shall have the right to review the minutes of the General Meeting.

- 7.14. For General Meetings held in accordance with the procedure in Article 7.10 of this Charter, the minutes shall be based on a summary of the feedback from shareholders on agenda items.
- 7.15. The General Meetings shall be chaired by the Chairperson of the Board. In the Chairperson’s absence, the Board shall elect a Chair of the General Meeting.
- 7.16. Each shareholder shall enjoy the right to vote in proportion to their equity in the share capital of the Bank. The voting in the Meeting shall be held, based on the principle of “one voting share equals one vote.” Shareholders may exercise their right to participate in the Meeting personally or through an authorized representative. At any time shareholders may change their authorized representative or decide to attend in person.
- 7.17. All other matters related to the annual and extraordinary General Meeting of the Bank, as well as the proposals on the meeting agenda by shareholders, their participation and voting in the Meeting, including the procedure for the preparation and conduct of the General Meeting, not addressed in this Charter, shall be regulated by the provisions of the Law of the Republic of Armenia “On Banks and Banking Activity” and the Law of the Republic of Armenia “On Joint-Stock Companies.”

8. THE BOARD OF THE BANK

Composition of the Board and Procedure for Its Establishment

- 8.1. The Board of the Bank shall consist of 10 (ten) members. The Board shall be chaired by the Board Chairperson, elected from among its members by a majority vote of the total number of its members.
- 8.2. In the event that the number of Board members falls below half of the number prescribed by this Charter, the Bank shall convene an Extraordinary General Meeting to fill the vacant position(s). The decision to convene such a meeting shall be made by the Board. The Board shall not have the right to adopt any resolutions, except for the decision to convene the meeting as well as those directly related to convening it.
The Board of the Bank shall be composed of the representatives of shareholders and may also have independent members.
