

Vagharshak Iskandaryan was born on May 16, 1987, in Yerevan.

In 2008, he graduated from the Cybernetics Department of the National Polytechnic University of Armenia with a bachelor's degree in "Management and Information in Technical Systems", and in 2018, he received a Master's degree in Information Security from the same university.

From 2008 to 2010, he served in the Armed Forces of the Republic of Armenia.

Vagharshak Iskandaryan began his professional career in 2011 at ACBA-CREDIT AGRICOLE BANK CJSC as an Information Security Specialist.

In 2020, he was designated as Head of the Information Security Department of ACBA-CREDIT AGRICOLE BANK CJSC, managing the bank's information systems security and information and cybersecurity risk management processes.

In 2025, Vagharshak Iskandaryan was appointed Director of Information Security and Cybersecurity of ACBA BANK OJSC, responsible for developing a cybersecurity strategy and ensuring the protection of the bank's information assets.

Throughout his career, Vagharshak Iskandaryan has completed extensive professional development and qualification programs both in Armenia and abroad.

Married, has a daughter and a son.