3.8.2. Advises on regulatory implications and changes that may affect the remuneration structures.

3.8.3. Trains and educates staff on legal aspects of remuneration.

4. COMPENSATION PHILISOPHY

4.1. The Group aims to offer competitive total compensation packages that attract and retain high-quality employees. Compensation decisions will be based on factors such as job responsibilities, market data, individual performance, and internal equity.

4.2. The Group promotes pay differentiation based on performance, skills, experience, and contribution to the organization's success, and grading system. The Policy is consistent with the business strategy, objectives, values of the Group, and promotes sound and effective risk management, ensuring that it does not encourage risk-taking that exceeds the level of tolerated risk of the Bank.

4.3. The Policy incorporates measures to avoid conflicts of interest.

4.4. The Policy is a gender-neutral, ensuring fair treatment and equal opportunities for all employees.

4.5. The policy envisages two components of total remuneration: fixed remuneration and variable remuneration.

4.6. As part of the compensation package, Employees may be eligible for preferential terms on financial operations conducted by the Group, in accordance with Annex 1 of the Policy.

5. FIXED PAY

5.1. Fixed pay will be determined based on job evaluation, market analysis, internal equity considerations, and grading system.

5.2. Fixed pay primarily reflects relevant professional experience and organizational responsibility as set out in an employee's job description as part of the terms of employment.

5.3. Fixed pay adjustments will be reviewed periodically, considering performance, market trends, and business conditions (overall financial and operational state of the Bank and of the Leasing, including factors such as revenue, profitability, economic environment, competitor performance, organizational changes, and industry trends).

6. VARIABLE PAY

6.1. Performance-based Variable Pay:

Performance-based variable pay and incentives may be provided to employees based on predefined goals, targets, or key performance indicators (KPIs).

6.2. Sustainable Performance

6.2.1. Variable remuneration reflects sustainable performance, as well as performance exceeding job requirements as part of the terms of employment.

6.2.2. Where remuneration is performance-related, the total amount of remuneration is based on a combination of the assessment of the performance of the individual and of the business unit concerned and, according to the overall results of the Bank or the Leasing. When assessing individual performance, both financial and non-financial criteria are taken into account.

6.3. Risk-adjusted Performance

6.3.1. Performance evaluation and the calculation and payment of variable remuneration based on it must be carried out taking into account the business risks of ACBA BANK GROUP.

6.4. Variable Remuneration Limits and Guaranteed Variable Remuneration

6.4.1. The total variable remuneration does not limit the ability of the Bank and the Leasing to strengthen its capital base.

6.4.2. Guaranteed variable remuneration is not consistent with sound risk management or the pay-for-performance principle and shall not be a part of prospective remuneration plans.

6.4.3. Guaranteed variable remuneration is exceptional, occurs only when hiring new staff and when, accordingly, the Bank or the Leasing has a sound and strong capital base and is limited to the first year of employment.

6.5. Balance Between Fixed and Variable remuneration Components of Top management and Subsidiary's General Director

6.5.1. Fixed and variable components of total remuneration are appropriately balanced, and the fixed component represents a sufficiently high proportion of the total remuneration to allow the operation of a fully flexible policy on variable remuneration components, including the possibility to pay no variable remuneration component.

6.5.2. The variable component of the total annual remuneration for Top management and Subsidiary's General Director shall not exceed 200 % of the fixed component of the total annual remuneration for each member.

6.5.3. Payments relating to the early termination of a contract reflect performance achieved over time and do not reward failure or misconduct.

6.6. Performance Measurement of Top management and Subsidiary's General Director

6.6.1. The measurement of performance used to calculate variable remuneration components or pools of variable remuneration components includes an adjustment for all types of current and future risks and takes into account the cost of the capital and the liquidity required.

6.6.2. The allocation of the variable remuneration components within the Group shall also take into account all types of current and future risks.

6.7. Malus or Clawback Arrangements of Top management and Subsidiary's General Director

6.7.1. The variable remuneration, is paid only if it is sustainable according to the financial situation (the ability of the Group to afford the payments of variable remuneration without compromising its financial stability or viability) of the Bank and the Leasing as a whole, and justified on the basis of the performance of the Bank and the Leasing, the business unit and the individual concerned.

6.7.2. Without prejudice to the general principles of the Republic of Armenia contract and labor law, the total variable remuneration shall generally be considerably contracted where subdued or negative financial performance of the institution occurs, taking into account both current remuneration and reductions in payouts of amounts previously earned, including through malus or clawback arrangements.

6.7.3. Regardless of performance indicators, up to 100 % of the total variable remuneration shall be subject to malus or clawback arrangements according to conditions set by Remuneration plans. The Group sets specific criteria for the application of malus and clawback. These criteria shall at least cover situations where the Top management member and the Subsidiary's General Director:

- a. has committed or was responsible for conduct which resulted or may result in significant financial and/or non-financial losses to the Bank or/and to the Leasing or the Group.
- b. failed to meet appropriate standards of fitness and propriety.

The full list of cases (criteria) for applying a malus or clawback is defined in the Remuneration Plan.

6.7.4. The decision on the application of malus and clawback may be made in respect of events that occurred before the adoption of the relevant decision, provided that the events did not occur earlier than the calendar year preceding the decision and may apply to the variable remuneration to be paid and/or already paid for that period. Moreover, the decision on the clawback of the paid variable remuneration may be made by the Board within one year after the relevant variable remuneration was paid.

7. TOTAL PAYROLL MANAGEMENT

7.1. Overview of Total Payroll Management

7.1.1. The Group commits to a responsible and sustainable management of its total payroll, ensuring that the overall remuneration budget aligns with the Group's financial capabilities and strategic objectives.

7.1.2. Total payroll includes all forms of remuneration across the Group, covering fixed pay, variable pay, benefits, and any other employee compensation costs.

7.2. Financial Planning and Targeted Industry Benchmarking of Top management and Subsidiary's General Director

7.2.1. Integration with Financial Planning: The process of determining and aligning the Group's payroll with industry standards is an integral part of the Group's annual financial planning. This ensures that payroll decisions are made with a comprehensive understanding of the Bank's and Leasing's financial position and strategic goals for the upcoming year.

7.2.2. Defining Peer Group for Benchmarking: The GNR Committee will define a peer group of organizations for benchmarking with the Bank and the Leasing. This group will be selected based on criteria such as market share, total assets, customer base, geographic presence, or other relevant metrics, ensuring a more relevant and accurate comparison for the Bank and the Leasing.

7.2.3. Use of Current Year Ratios and Peer Data: For effective financial planning, the Group will utilize the most recent financial data, including current year ratios and data from the defined peer group, for forecasting and setting the next year's payroll budget. This approach provides a practical and informed basis for planning, even though actual results for the next year might differ.

7.2.4. Annual Review and Adaptation: The Group acknowledges the dynamic nature of financial results and market conditions. Therefore, the Group will regularly review and adapt its payroll strategy in response to actual performance and changing market conditions throughout the year.

7.3. Calculation of Payroll Estimates and Balancing the Estimates

7.3.1. Payroll Estimate Based on Assets: The Bank and the Leasing will estimate the payroll based on its total assets, multiplied by the Peer Group average Payroll-to-Asset Ratio.

Estimated Payroll (Assets) = Bank's or Leasing's Total Assets x Average Payroll-to-Asset Ratio

7.3.2. Payroll Estimate Based on Profit: Similarly, a payroll estimate based on the Bank's or Leasing's net profit will be calculated using the Peer Group average Payroll-to-Profit Ratio.

Estimated Payroll (Profit) = Banks or Leasing's Net Profit x Average Payroll-to-Profit Ratio

7.3.3. Balancing the Estimates: The Bank or the Leasing will use an average of these two estimates to determine a balanced payroll figure that aligns with industry norms.

Balanced Payroll Estimate = Estimated Payroll (Assets) + Estimated Payroll (Profit) / 2

7.3.4. Adjustment for Employee Productivity: The Bank or the Leasing will also compare its employee productivity against the Peer Group average. Adjustments to payroll estimates may be made to reflect differences in productivity levels.

7.3.5. Annual Review and Adjustment: These estimates will be reviewed and adjusted annually to reflect changes in the Bank's or Leasing's financials, industry standards, and market conditions.

7.4. Methodical Distribution of Total Payroll

7.4.1. Allocation for General Staff: Initially, the Group will define the total salaries for the General Staff based on available benchmark salaries, internal job evaluations, and market analysis. Salary ranges for different roles within the General Staff will be established based on market salary surveys and internal job evaluations.

7.4.2. Estimating Remuneration for Top management, Subsidiary's General Director and Board Members: After setting aside the budget for the General Staff, the Group will estimate the payroll allocation for Top management, Subsidiary's General Director and Board members. This estimation is derived by deducting the total General Staff salaries from the overall payroll budget of the Group. The remaining figure will guide the allocation for Top management, Subsidiary's General Director and Board Members, ensuring alignment with internal criteria and the Group's strategic objectives. This approach ensures a balanced and sustainable payroll structure, reflecting the roles and contributions of E Top management, Subsidiary's General Director and Board Members.

7.5. Remuneration Ratio for Top management, Subsidiary's General Director

7.5.1. Grading-Dependent Ratio Policy: The Group implements a remuneration ratio between the Top management, Subsidiary's General Director that is dependent on their respective grades within the Group's grading system.

7.5.2. Three-to-One Ratio Across Grades: The remuneration pool allocated to the CEO will be three times that of the remuneration pool for a deputy at the comparable scales within the grades.

7.5.3. Application Across Compensation Components: This three-to-one ratio encompasses the entire compensation package, including base salary, bonuses, incentives, and other financial benefits.

7.5.4. Reflecting Role Responsibility and Impact: The ratio is reflective of the proportional differences in responsibilities, decision-making authority, and strategic impact associated with each grade level within the CEO and deputy roles.

7.5.5. Periodic Review for Relevance and Competitiveness: The GNR Committee will conduct regular reviews of this graded ratio policy. This ensures its ongoing relevance, competitiveness, and alignment with both internal equity and external market standards.

8. MATERIAL IMPACT STAFF

8.1. Categories of staff whose professional activities have a material impact on the Group's risk profile shall, at least, include:

- 1) Top management, Subsidiary's General Director, Subsidiary's Deputy General Director, Chief Accountant;
- 2) The responsible persons of the Group's Second Line of Control and Group's Third Line of Control;

8.2. The list of categories of employees whose professional activities have a material impact is approved by the Board upon recommendation of the Group's Risk Management Responsible Person and with the consent of the Board's Risk Management Committee.

8.3. In accordance with the provisions of this Section, the list of Material Impact Staff of the Group is maintained by the HR and Organizational Development Directorate.

9. BENEFITS, PERQUISITES, INCENTIVES

9.1. The Group offers a comprehensive benefits package designed to support the overall well-being and financial stability of employees. Benefits may include insurance, leave policies, employee assistance programs, and other relevant benefits.

9.2. Perquisites, if applicable, will be provided within reasonable limits and in compliance with relevant regulations.

9.3. Incentive plans will be designed to encourage individual and collective performance, aligning with the organization's strategic objectives. The criteria for determining incentives will be communicated clearly, and payouts will be based on objective performance measures.

10. PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

10.1. Performance assessments will be conducted periodically to evaluate individual and team contributions.

10.2. Performance evaluations will serve as a basis for salary adjustments, variable pay, and career development opportunities.

10.3. The Group's Second Line of Control, the Group's Third Line of Control are independent from the business units they oversee and will be remunerated based on the achievement of objectives linked to their functions, independent of the performance of the business areas they control.

10.4. The remuneration of senior officers in the risk management and compliance functions will be directly overseen by the GNR Committee.

11. COMPLIANCE AND GOVERNANCE

11.1. The Policy complies with applicable laws, regulations, and industry standards.

11.2. The Board will adopt and periodically review the general principles of the Policy and oversee its implementation.

11.3. The implementation of the Policy will be subject to central and independent internal review at least annually to ensure compliance with policies and procedures adopted by the Board.

11.4. The Group shall disclose at least the following information, regarding the Policy and practices of the Bank/the Leasing for those categories of staff whose professional activities have a material impact on risk profile of the Bank/the Leasing:

11.4.1. information concerning the decision-making process used for determining the remuneration policy, as well as the number of meetings held by the main body overseeing remuneration during the financial year, including, if applicable, information about the composition and the mandate of a remuneration committee, the external consultant whose services have been used for the determination of the Policy and the role of the relevant stakeholders;

11.4.2. information on link between pay and performance,

11.4.3. the most important design characteristics of the remuneration system, including information on the criteria used for performance measurement and risk adjustment, deferral policy and vesting criteria,

11.4.4. the ratios between fixed and variable remuneration;

11.4.5. the main parameters and rationale for any variable component scheme and any other non-cash benefits;

11.4.6. aggregate quantitative information on remuneration, broken down by business area;

11.4.7. aggregate quantitative information on remuneration, broken down by Top management, Subsidiary's General Director and members of staff whose actions have a material impact on the risk profile of the Bank/the Leasing, indicating the following:

a. the amounts of remuneration for the financial year, split into fixed and variable remuneration, and the number of beneficiaries;

b. new sign-on and severance payments made during the financial year, and the number of beneficiaries of such payments;

- c. the amounts of severance payments awarded during the financial year, number of beneficiaries and highest such award to a single person;
- 11.4.8. the number of individuals being remunerated AMD 120 million or more per financial year;
- 11.4.9. total remuneration for each member of the Top management, Subsidiary's General Director.
